

Contact

- colette.blackmon@uga.edu
- (404)713-0223
- 184 Vine Street, Athens, GA, 30601

Skills

- Microsoft Office
- Adobe Creative Suites
- MailChimp
- WordPress
- Canva
- Intermediate French fluency

Colette Marie Blackmon

Promoting sustainability in agriculture through creative excellence in communications and design.

Education

University of Georgia, '23

- B.S.A. Agricultural Communications
- B.A. International Affairs
- Minor in Horticulture
- GPA: 3.8

Professional Experience

UGArden Communications Intern • August 2022 - present

- Write and design content for Instagram and Facebook for UGA's organic student farm.
- Redesign and maintain organization website using WordPress.
- Publish a monthly newsletter, lead weekly volunteer events, conduct interviews with members of the press and guide visitor tours.

Winegrowers Association of Georgia Intern • June - August 2022

- Researched grapevine nutrition, pesticide efficacy, and vineyard diseases.
- Created mapped of the property.
- Performed daily field work to care for grapevines.

UGArden Compost Intern • August 2021 - May 2022

- Managed compost program by collecting compost material, monitoring temperature and moisture levels and turning pile with tractor.
- Created educational materials and updated, multi-lingual signage.

Leadership and Extracurriculars

Women's Studies Student Organization President • May 2021 - May 2022

- Designed and presented educational feminist programming.
- Organized social and fundraising events.
- Managed club relationships with local businesses and nonprofits.
- Published weekly newsletter.

The Red and Black • December 2020 - May 2021

- Wrote articles for the culture desk of the UGA student newspaper.

Honors

- Dean's List, School of Public and International Affairs
- Dean's List, College of Agricultural and Environmental Science
- Presenter at Sustainable UGA's Semester in Review, spring 2023: Communicating Sustainability